

BENEFICIARY

Your participation in this event will support the Southwest student scholarship fund which is used to assist those families that have financial needs.

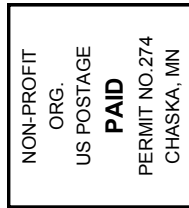

Established in 1996, Southwest Christian is a comprehensive, college-preparatory high school located in Chaska. Southwest is an independent, interdenominational school that serves families from more than 40 area churches and 25 communities. Utilizing a discipleship model of Christian education, Southwest helps students to think and act biblically in their worldview. Southwest offers a strong Christ-centered program in academics, fine arts, student leadership, service, and athletics.

Mission Statement

It is the mission of SWCHS to train students to think and act biblically toward the world in their academic, athletic, and artistic achievement.
